In Memoriam.

When on the beautiful morn of September 7th, the sad intelligence was conveyed to relatives and friends, that the spirit of Mr. W. S. Bourne had taken its flight from earth to a brighter world, the news of his death cast a gloom over the entire community, as no man had more friends or stood higher in the estimation of the people than did he. Mr. Bourne, who was in his sixty-second year, had been in failing health for several years and his condition had been critical for several months, yet it was hoped he would be spared to cheer the hearts of his dear ones, in the future, as he had done in the past. But alas; their hopes were in vain. The deceased was one of Garrard's most prominent and highly respected citizens, and was beloved by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, and was a man whose many good deeds will live long after he has passed to his reward. He was a general favorite and will be missed by those for who he was always so ready and anxious to aid. We can hardly reconcile ourselves to the thought that he has gone, but we can repeat the words of our Saviour: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." Mr. Bourne's life was one of honesty and uprightness, and one worthy of example by the young. He leaves a widow, one daughter, two sons and a large circle of friends and relatives to mourn his loss. We heartily sympathize with the bereaved ones and bid them look to Him for comfort "who doeth all things well." Funeral services conducted Monday, Rev. Williams officiating, the remains were interred in the Lancaster Cemetery. S. B.
